Frank O'Connell Has Heart Attack

Veteran Deputy Sheriff Frank O'Connell of Canal Point is in St. Marys Hospital in West Palm Beach following a heart attack which struck him in the early hours of Wednesday morning of this week at his home. Following the attack Deputy O'Connell felt better and drove his car to town where he planned to attend business in his line of duty.

Upon his arrival in West Palm Beach he decided that a visit to his heart physician was necessary and it was from that office, following examination, that he was sent directly to the hospital. Mr. O'Connell had a severe heart attack several years ago but by carefully planning his work and taking pretty good care of himself, he recovered to what was thought to be a full degree.

Relatives of the deputy said yesterday that the attack on Wednesday morning was a severe one and that Mr. O'Connell is seriously ill. His doctor said that his illness will call for two-weeks hospitalization and another three to four weeks of careful recuperation at his home in Canal Point.

Sheriff Pleased At Patrol Report

Sheriff John F. Kirk Saturday expressed himself as being well pleased with the County Road Patrol report released by Lt. Ray Howard at the end of the first six months operation of this newly-formed section of the Sheriff's Dept.

"The report is very gratifying and shows a determination to serve the public, which is all too rare in police work today," Kirk said, as he read over the impressive totals: "You know, this report, if studied, will give the people some idea of the many and varied duties demanded of our uniformed deputies beside the routine traffic and highway patrol duties that make up the major part of their work."

"For example, look at the number of miscellaneous calls and investigations made by the patrol: 3,244 calls in six months. These calls include everything from murder to barking dogs, and usually it is the uniformed man who arrived first at the scene—sometimes to complete the case on the spot, and some times to stand by until other officers arrive."

"These calls required a total of 2,093 hours to complete. Other breakdowns are equally interesting and show that we have grown from a green, sometimes fumbling start, to a seasoned, well-knit unit of which the people may well be proud. I certainly am," the sheriff concluded.

The report follows, with totals for the six-month period from Feb. 17 through July of this year:

Total miles (six cars) 308,959; total hours worked, 23,095; hours on patrol, 18,956; accidents covered, 224; hours, 262; investigation and miscellaneous calls, 3,244; hours, 2,093; civil papers served, 511; hours, 165; escorts, 85; hours, 150; hours spent in court, 1,247; office duty hours, 179; auto out-of-

Boys Staters At Pahokee Rote Club

Joey Alderman, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Alderman of Pahokee, and Johnny Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Smith of Canal Point, were guest speakers at the Thursday luncheon meeting of the Pahokee Rotary Club last week. The speakers, both members of the Pahokee High School Senior Class, told of activities at 'Boys' State' which they attended in Tallahassee in June. They recommended that Pahokee High School have a larger representative at Boy's State and suggested that the Rotarians serve as sponsors for two additional boys at next year's session. E. A. Belcher, program chairman, introduced the guests. C. E. (Bill) Williams, the new president, presided and Miss Margaret Powell was pianist.

Aug. 17 Date Set To Start Foot Ball

Preseason football practice for the Pahokee High Blue Devils will start Monday, Aug. 17, when all boys, ninth through twelfth grades, interested in football are asked to meet with Coach Web Fell at 4 p. m. in the football dressing room on the campus for registration.

Coach Fell, who expects the return of only two starting lettermen, Guard Jimmy Maxwell and Center Charles Godwin, in this year's squad, will again be assisted in his coaching chores by Assistant Coaches W. D. Howard and Carney Wilder. The preseason practice up to Sept. 1 will consist mostly of "toughening-up" exercises with squad members dressed in shorts.

The scene of the afternoon training sessions will be Pahokee High School's new athletic field on Larimore Road, located about two blocks northeast of the main campus, which is being put into use for the first time this season. The new field, completely covered with a heavy growth of turf, is in excellent condition and about ready for the opening of the 1959 football season. A concessions stand topped by a press box has been completed, seats on both sides of the field have been installed and workmen are engaged this week in the installation of the overhead flood lights.

Erickson, Webb On Lofcoop Board

Floyd Erickson and Harold Webb, Jr., were elected new directors of the Lake Okeechobee Farmer Cooperative at the annual dinner meeting held at the Community Building in Canal Point Monday with President Walter Kautz presiding.

Erickson replaces Walter Kautz as director and Webb replaces Bill Erickson, both with three-year terms of office. Holdover directors are Joe Waddell, A. R. Harrington and Hilton Jones.

Bill Erickson was in charge of the barbecue dinner which was served to approximately 100 members and guests. He was assisted by J. W. Repper, Hilton Jones, Walter Kautz and Harold Webb. M. U. Mounts, County agricultural agent, and John Causey, assistant agent, were guests.

25 YEARS FOR RARDIN

AUGUST 24, 1934. That's the date on which Paul Rardin became managing editor of The Everglades News—25 years come a week from Monday. In 1937 he became owner-publisher of the paper and has maintained that position through the years. During the 25 years of his residence here Rardin has been an elected public official for 17 years. He served in the State Legislature for two years and is in his 15th year of service on the county commission.

In summing up his quarter century of residence in Canal Point and the Glades, commenting on the splendid patronage his newspaper has always received, saying a kind word about all the fine folks who have always supported him for election to office, he concluded by saying that his good wife, Kathryn, summed it all up in one short sentence the other day by saying: "They've been 25 wonderful years."

Jet Airport Will Be Self-Financing

A new jet airport which Palm Beach County Commissioner propose to build, and airport which it will operate in the interim, took the spotlight of the county board's action this week.

Commissioner Kenneth Foster, chairman of the boards airport committee, presented a report from Cleveland and Colpits, a New York engineering firm hired to make a feasibility survey in connection with the construction of a new port west of the Palm Beaches, saying the survey spelled out steps to be taken to build the "jetport" with out the use of tax monies.

The engineering report, a preliminary report to the commission, pointed out that sale of Palm Beach International Airport would, if feasible, early parts of the new airfield. It also assured the commission that construction of a new airport was feasible.

Foster said he believed the commission should go ahead and try to accomplish this project as soon as possible.

He was supported in his views by County Engineer Steve Middleton who said the New York report proved the proposed airport to be financially feasible, economically desirable and that the field could be built without the use of tax money.

The report estimated that cost of construction of a new field to be in the neighborhood of $10 million—much of which could be raised by sale of lands at International Airport for other development.

The commission voted to accept the engineering report and to take immediate steps to undertake zoning and use planning for International Airport. The board also agreed to immediately undertake screening request for the use of Airport properties and to make the facilities available on short rentals, as soon as possible.

Health Officer Is Lions Speaker

Rr. K. E. Kaufman of West Palm Beach, assistant County health officer, was guest speaker at the Tuesday luncheon meeting of the Pahokee Lions Club. Introduced by D. B. Mathis, program chairman, the speaker told of the County Health Department's proposed plan to test the eyesight of the approximately 45,000 students in Palm Beach County, first through twelfth grades, with new improved equipment which detects in a very brief examination practically all kinds of vision defects. The club, because of its interest and activities in sight conservation work, was asked to assist in the program by furnishing volunteer workers while the mobile sight-testing clinic is operating at Pahokee Schools during the coming year. The Lions voted to cooperate in this project.

Blows The Scales Off Speckled Perch

The Fishing Editor of this newspaper has now seen everything. Or, at least, he feels that he has seen the very latest idea of scaling fish. It all came about at Ray Hawk's Gulf Service Station in Canal Point Thursday morning when Little Buck Buchanan caught a mess of Speckled Perch and Yankee George Nedeau started to clean them for Cricket Cross' dinner.

Ray said he had heard that the scales could be blown off, thereby saving a lot of hard work. He reached for the air hose and promptly proceeded to blow the scales off the fish in a flash. The procedure was lightning fast and the mess of fish was cleaned and ready for the pan before you could say Lake Okeechobee.

Twenty years ago the Fishing Editor of this newspaper told a story of using rubber bands to catch perch in the St. Lucie Canal. The story went the rounds and a lot of folks didn't much believe it. Today, you can buy rubber worms in tackle shops along with the other rubber baits available. Who knows, maybe somebody will set up a fish scaling station wherever air pressure is available.

Present Airport For Many Uses

County Commissioners this week gave the green light to a huge remodeling program for the terminal at International Airport in an effort to have the installation ready for the press of seasonal business.

Under plans adopted by the board, the terminal will be remodeled to make space available for additional airlines to operate from the base.

An enlarged restaurant and facilities for a cocktail lounge will also be part of the improvement program.

Commissioner Kenneth Foster, chairman of the board airport committee, said leases for the restaurant and cocktail lounge will be offered to Howard Johnson, present lease holder. Foster said terms of the lease for both facilities will be (continued on page 8)

Planting Starts Glades This Week

This week marks the beginning of the planting season in the vast Lake Okeechobee farming region and seed is going into the ground in many sections of the area. Pepper, cabbage, and a lot of corn has been planted this week, according to Joe Hutton, who keeps a weather eye on all the crops in the Glades.

The Hutton boys, Roscell Wilson, Walter Hull and Sam Senter have been keeping their planters busy during the sunshine hours of this week. Corn planted this week will find its way to the American tables along about October 10.

It is thought that 50,000 acres will cover what corn was planted in this area last year during the season. This year it is beginning to look like there will be a few acres more. Some of the fellows made good money on corn and that, of course, will bring about the extra acreage this year.

Celery was in the doghouse last year. Growers of the luscious weed took it on the chin during the entire season, but, from the number of celery beds in the Glades it looks like the losers are going to try to recoup their losses by planting celery again this year and hoping for a better break in the market.

City Council To Build Sidewalks

The Pahokee City Council in regular session Monday night voted for an extension of the sidewalk on S. E. Second Street from Antenna Ave. to Lake Avenue, construction to start as soon as the necessary plans are drawn up.

The names of three streets in the Ridgecrest Gardens residential area were changed to make them uniform with the city's street naming system which is being revised where necessary to conform with postal regulations for mail delivery service. The name of Tenth Street was changed to Juniper; Eleventh Street to Kismet, and N. E. First Place to Garden Place.

The purchase of Army surplus merchandise from Camp Blanding for use in various city departments at a cost of $3,770 was authorized. City Clerk Patsy Batchelor was also authorized to purchase $1,000 in federal government bonds for the Firemen's Pension Fund.

Mayor F. S. (Dick) Parrish, together with Councilmen Hugo Boe and Charles Brown, was named on a special committee to negotiate with the State Road Department for a boat launching ramp at Pahokee Harbor.

It was announced the Council will hold a special meeting in the City Hall Monday night, Sept. 7, when the group will sit as a Board of Equalization on Taxes, starting at 8 p. m.

Here Is What Transpired At Monday's Meeting Of The Palm Beach County Commission

The county Commission this week adopted a State Road Department survey which recommends a long range road and bridge program for the county, as its guide in setting up a road construction program.

The board also voted to ask the state to review the plan every five years in an effort to keep the survey current with the growth of Palm Beach County.

In other actions this week, the board:

Nominated Nat Orr, West Palm Beach mortgage man as a member of the county zoning board.

Heard that plans for a bridge ramp at the west end of Flagler Bridge have been completed by the state road department and that right of way requirements for the plans will be submitted soon.

Approved plans for improvement of road at the Jupiter school.

Voted to ask municipal police departments in the Palm Beaches to help keep bridges between the two cities clean of debris left by fishermen.

Referred letters from the Board of Visitors asking for changes at the county childrens home. to Juvenile Judge Richard Robbins for his study and recommendation. The visitors board requested that jail be used for the county jail be used for that purpose only and that nursing service be provided at the county home.

Heard that a ceremony is being arranged to welcome the 500,000 couple across the Palm Beach County line at the Welcome Station next Monday morning.

Federal Funds To Assist Innocent

JACKSONVILLE — Utilization of available federal funds in the state's broad hospitalization for the indigent program was the goal in the signing this week of a contract between the State Board of Health and the State Department of Public Welfare. Matching funds from the social security program of well over a million dollars a year will be expended in giving hospitalization to Florida's needy in four public assistance categories served by the national agency.

Officials explained that the state's hospitalization for the indigent program, in which the counties care for their own needy with state assistance, would go on as before. Federal money, as provided for by an amendment to the Social Security Act last year, would be available to provide care in the four categories, the aged, the blind, the dependent child and the permanently and totally disabled, under the new arrangement.

At a meeting of the State Board of Health on Sunday, August 9, Dr. H. Phillip (cp) Hampton, Tampa, Chairman of the governor-appointed Hospital Service for the Indigent Advisory Committee, said that the state and county governments had been spending some four million dollars a year in indigent care. He noted that this service had gone to some 16,000 persons per year, of whom 46 percent were in one of the four categories eligible to receive care under the Federal program. He also reminded his listeners that doctors receive no pay for services to these patients, but that the hospitals were paid an approved per diem rate during the patient's stay.

State Welfare Director Frank M. Craft and State Health Officer Wilson T. Sowder, M. D., outlined the history of the state medical assistance program and the negotiations leading up to the preparation of the present contract. Both agreed that it would be appropriate for the welfare agency to manage and take responsibility for determining the eligibility of aid recipients, and for the health agency to administer the program and give medical supervision.

A wedding dinner for the bridal couple and members of their family will be held at the home of Mrs. Ruth Carr in Pahokee following the ceremony. After a honeymoon on the Florida East Coast Mr. and Mrs. Kautz will make their home in Canal Point.

Vegetable Growers Should Start Fall Planting Plan Now

GAINESVILLE — Florida vegetable growers are advised to start planning their fall schedule now by Dr. James Monterlaro, associate vegetable crops specialist with the Florida Agricultural Extension Service.

Decide what crops and how many acres of each to plant. Since most Florida vegetable growing is a year round job, start early on jobs which can be done during the summer.

Plow under old vegetable crops left from the spring season, if it hasn't been done. If left unplowed, an old crop stand is a good breeding ground for insects and diseases.

This is especially serious where a crop is planted almost continuously time after time.

After the land has been plowed, limed and thoroughly disked, plant it to a summer cover crop. Legumes, including southernpeas and soybeans, make excellent summer cover crops.

Florida's sandy soils are much improved by organic matter added from cover crops. Organic matter conserves fertilizer nutrients, improves water holding capacity, aeration, and drainage of the soil. Cover crops also tend to hold down the production of grass and weed seeds.

Pick your savings target and shoot straight for it!

A home . . . financial security . . . a business of your own. Important savings targets like these cost money—a substantial sum—and more than most of us have. But here's a sure way for you to score a bull's-eye and walk off with the big prize you want.

The secret of saving is system. And the simplest, most automatic saving system ever devised is the Payroll Savings Plan. Best of all, you do more than save through Payroll Savings. You invest your money, too, and make it grow. Here's how it works:

Tell your company pay office how much you want to save each week. Then each pay period that amount will be put aside for you before you have a chance to spend it. Your money will go automatically into U. S. Series E Savings Bonds.

Because Savings Bonds earn good interest—3% compounded semiannually when held to maturity (9 years and 8 months)—they're soon worth much more than you've invested in them. And your Bonds will continue to pay this same good interest as long as 19 years and 8 months. That means a return of up to 80% more than you originally paid.

And remember this. There's no guesswork or chance about the Payroll Savings Plan. It's absolutely safe and sure. Invest just $7.50 a week. In 5 years you'll have Savings Bonds worth $2053 in cash; in 10 years, $4468.

Even if you've never been able to save before, this plan is guaranteed to work for you. So sign up today for Payroll Savings where you work—or invest in Bonds regularly where you bank.

For the big things in your life, be ready with U. S. Savings Bonds

Uncle Sam made the bonds you own an even better bargain!

Now your maturing Series E Bonds can earn interest 10 more years at 3%

PRESENT TREASURY REGULATIONS make it possible for you to collect a return of as much as 80% on the Series E Savings Bonds you already own!

For now those Bonds which you invested in 10 years ago can go right on earning interest for ten more years without your doing a thing about it! That is true not only of the Bonds which you have held for ten years, but any other Series E Bonds which you have invested in in the meantime. And any Series E Bonds which you obtain now will also enjoy the extended earning period. They will start earning interest sooner and mature earlier, too, paying 3%, compounded semiannually.

The Bond you got for $18.75 can now pay you $33.67 . . . a $37.50 Bond will be worth $67.34 . . . and so on.

Of course, any Series E Bond may still be redeemed at any time after you have held it for two months. But, like any other form of saving, your Bonds will mean a great deal more to you if you can hold on to them.

Are you one of the millions of Americans who are saving regularly with Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan? If you're not, why not start now? Invest regularly in Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. Ask your pay office to save as little as 25c a week for you, or as much as you are able.

If you can save just $5 a week regularly through the Plan, in five years you will have $1,367.90 . . . in 9 years and 8 months, you'll have $2,850.70 . . . and in 19 years and 8 months, $6,872.45! This Plan is one sure way to save because it saves something out of every check before you have a chance to spend it.

So join the Payroll Savings Plan where you work today. Or, if you are self-employed, start the Bond-A-Month Plan where you bank. It's safe, it's sure, it's automatic. And you will be helping yourself and your country!

If you want to be paid your interest as current income—
invest in 3% Series H

If you want a good, sound investment which pays you your interest by check every six months, ask at your bank about United States Government Series H Bonds. Series H is a new current income Bond available in denominations of $500 to $10,000. Redeemable at par after 6 months and on 30 days' notice. Matures in 9 years and 8 months and pays an average 3% interest per annum if held to maturity. Interest paid semiannually by Treasury check. Series H may be purchased at any bank, annual limit $20,000.

Now even better! Invest more in Savings Bonds!

5,416 Persons Get State Welfare Aid Palm Beach County

Thomas E. Penick, Chairman of District 10 Welfare Board of the State Department of Public Welfare, reported that in Palm Beach County 5,416 persons were assisted in the four categories of public assistance for the month of July.

A total of 1,691 persons received Old Age Assistance in the amount of $84,854.00. 85 persons received Aid to the Blind, totaling $5,186.00. 875 families, representing 2,709 children, received Aid to Dependent Children in the amount of $56,083.00. 184 persons received Aid to the Disabled in the amount of $10,393.00.

In addition 214 children received service during the month, 95 of whom were in foster homes. The total state and local cost for these child welfare services was $7,505.26.

There were 10 adoption petitions studied for the Circuit Court. These are children placed in homes independent of service through a licensed child placing agency, and the Welfare Board is responsible according to law to make these reports to the court.

Palm Beach County is also represented on the District 10 Welfare Board by Mrs. Doris Sasser, Pahokee, the Rev. Paul M. Cassen, Mrs. Helen R. Tedder and Mrs. Helen D. Woodward of West Palm Beach.

In another action, the board voted not to reopen a section of Congress Ave., which skirts the fringe area of the base because of the safety hazards involved. The board also considered the security factor involved in reaching a decision on the road. The base is presently fenced off and if the road was opened it would provide an easy access to the base.

The board also approved buying a 30-day insurance policy for airport hangers which have been turned over to the county by the Air Force.

The board learned that E. Farrell Company, Inc., which now operates from Lantana Airport, is interested in leasing one of the hangers for its business of repairing radio and electronics equipment for aircrafts.

Frank Sakser, aviation director, told the board that landing fees for private planes will go into effect August 15.

New Technique Aids Anaplasmosis Study At Florida Station

GAINESVILLE—A recently devised technique at the Florida Agricultural Experiment Station may result in increased knowledge of the cause and possible cure of anaplasmosis.

Dr. M. Ristic, pathologist with the veterinary science department, says the infectious, non-contagious cattle disease costs American livestockmen over three billion dollars in production losses and three and one-half million dollars in mortality losses annually.

During the last decade, use of modern instruments and improved techniques has offered new and better means of studying the anaplasma organism.

The recently devised technique to free red blood cells from the hemoglobin permits clear observation of anaplasma in an electron microscope. By use of the new technique, three distinct morphological forms apparently associated with growth of anaplasma have been observed.

Dr. Ristic says knowledge of the true nature of anaplasma has a direct bearing on practical aspects of learning how to control this malady.

"It is hoped," says the pathologist, "that through further studies of the basic principles governing the nature of anaplasma, sufficient knowledge will be gained to devise a specific control and eradication measure."

Two Chevy middleweights prove their rawhide stamina!

Top hands on high-country hauls!

Ask any trucker who's been over Wolf Creek Pass, 10,850 feet up in the San Juans: a 9-mile pull to the summit and low gear all the way down. Mr. C. H. Phillips of Alamosa, Colorado, has a 6403 and a 6503 Chevrolet truck that are up over this route the year round, taking sheep and beef to pasture, later marketing the stock in Denver. In less than a year, his Chevy middleweights have averaged about 50,000 miles of this kind of treatment—and they're going stronger than ever!

Watch Chevy trucks at work out in range country. It's a sight to see the way they pack into high-up mountain pastures and handle through brush and rock like a cowman's favorite cutting horse. Take any truck work for that matter. Chevy middleweights probably handle a bigger variety of jobs than any trucks alive. About anything you name, including work that used to be reserved strictly for bigger rigs. When a truck's built the way a Chevy is, lean-muscled and rawhide-tough, it takes to ugly trails the same way most trucks roll over the highway. It just keeps going, without a big to-do, but looking good every mile of the way. How they do it is your Chevrolet dealer's department. He'll be glad to supply details and specifications on the type of models you need.

No job's too tough for a Chevrolet truck!
